

ON-LINE PARTNERS' SUPPORT GROUP

The Partners Support Group is for people whose partners are questioning gender, neutral, non-binary, and or gender queer.

The aim of this support group is to provide participants with a network of support in a safe on-line environment in which participants can communicate with one another constructively. Each session's objectives will be to share resources and assist participants deepen their understanding of their situation and themselves. The focus will be on the participants not their partners.

All sessions will be held monthly initially (on a Saturday morning) and would be for an hour in duration. Please answer the questions below to give us more of an understanding as to why you would like to participate in the group sessions

All sessions are facilitated by a professional Counsellor

- What is your need for participating in a support group?

- The content of what is discussed in the group would need to be kept in confidence by all participants.

Would you be able to do so?
